Please remember to inform the Office of the Local Court President, if you are tested positive for COVID-19 within the next two weeks. You can find the contact data on the homepage of this Court under <https://www.justiz.bayern.de/gerichte-und-behoerden/muenchen/>.

In this manner you will make an important contribution in order to slow down the spread of the novel corona virus. The aim is to keep the strain on the health care system as slow as possible and ensure care for severely ill patients.

Privacy Notes

This self-disclosure and your personal data contained therein are exclusively kept in this Court and exclusively in paper form (no electronic data storage).

Further data processing is taking place only if within three weeks from the time of your today's visit to the Court it is found out that you or one of your accompanying persons in this building are tested positive for COVID-19. In that event, the personal data are used in order to identify other possible contact persons. The data would then also be passed on to the local health authorities.

The data collection, data retention and possible use of the data exclusively serve the purpose of protecting your health and the health of possible contact persons.

The legal basis is Art. 6 (1) subparagraph 1 lit. e (3) GDPR in combination with Art. 4 (1) of the Bavarian Data Protection Act (BayDSG) or Art. 6 (1) subparagraph 1 lit. d GDPR.

The data will be deleted latest four weeks after your today's visit of the Court.

The contact data of the person responsible for data protection of this Court as well as of the local Data Protection Commissioner are apparent from the homepage of this Court under <https://www.justiz.bayern.de/gerichte-und-behoerden/muenchen/>. If you do not have access to the homepage of this Court, you can also contact this Court in writing or over the phone.

With respect to the processing of your personal data, as data subject you have the following rights pursuant to Art. 15 et seq. GDPR:

- If your personal data are processed, you have the right to obtain information about the data relating to the data subject that are stored (Art. 15 GDPR).
- In case incorrect personal data are processed, you have the right to rectification of such data (Art. 16 GDPR).
- If the legal requirements are fulfilled, you can request the erasure or a restriction of processing (Art. 17 and 18 GDPR). However, the right to erasure does not apply among others if the processing of personal data is necessary for the performance of a task for reasons of public interest or in the exercise of official authority (Art. 17 (3) lit. b GDPR), or if processing is necessary for reasons of public interest in the area of public health in accordance with Art. 9 (2) lit. i GDPR (Art. 17 (3) lit. c GDPR).
- On grounds relating to your particular situation you have the right to object to the processing of personal data pertaining to you (Art. 21 GDPR). If the legal preconditions are met, thereafter your personal data will no longer be processed.

In addition, you have the right to complain with a supervisory authority as defined in Art. 51 GDPR regarding the processing of your personal data. The supervisory authority in charge for Bavarian public bodies is the Bavarian Data Protection Commissioner (Landesbeauftragter für den Datenschutz):
